

ASO Radio

"Bringing the best in anime talk radio."

So why should you listen to ASO Radio? Because you've got good taste. You're tired of the trite ramblings of some know-nothings going on about how they don't like some anime just because it's of a genre they don't like. And you couldn't stomach yet another mix of some random music tracks you've never heard of again this weekend.

So you turn on ASO Radio. The informative news section gets you up-to-date on the anime happenings that are important to you. The reviews really explain why you should spend your time and money on certain anime. The fan-mail section lets you sculpt the show how you see fit: after all, this show is tailored for you. And everybody enjoys a little variety in life, and that's why you enjoy the HotSpot.

Oh sure, there's the contests. Who doesn't enjoy winning anime merchandise? And of course, there's those always-funny "Funnies" at the beginning of every Episode. But the real reason you come back every week for a new Episode of ASO Radio isn't because of those reasons, it isn't because of the cute mascot Bandie, and it isn't because ASO Radio features the best of independent music. It's because you know what you like, and you like ASO Radio because it gives you what you want:

High-quality, free anime talk radio.
